25X1 1. Next offering of AAO - Latin America, originally scheduled for mid-January, is being readied on a crash basis for next Tuesday, the 22nd. Casual inquiry on our part this week revealed that a large number of those in WH who should have this briefing will have been integrated at State by the published date. Tuesday happens to suit all concerned, and we expect to brief all 15 persons identified by WH [] We have strengthened the content of this regional-type briefing by including two full periods on problems of personal behavior, one on those specific to this area and the other on conclusions concerning the general subject. After conversion in late winter to our intensified AAO program, this kind of one-day group briefing will be followed by single-country discussions with individuals. Twelve different countries are represented by the 15 registrants for this briefing, suggesting the magnitude of the task after conversion.

25X1 2. [] attended the monthly meeting of the Agency's Africa Roundtable on Friday. The speaker was Col. Howard C. Junkerman of the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs. Junkerman discussed current developments and problems concerning U.S. military assistance for African countries.
